

This is the only thing keeping a free and open internet. What you are doing is the opposite of "internet freedom". I urge you not to change the laws. This is one of the few things the majority of people do agree on. If you reverse this decision we will have the opposite of "internet freedom".